DO YOU WANT A PARK?

This is a question that has been handed to us by the mayor and he desires to pass it on to the people of the community. Do the people really want a park? That is the question. If they do they can have it. A year ago, as we understand it, certain persons met and in cooperation with the civic association rented the plat of land on which the park was temporarily opened. Now they have had another meeting and find that if the people want a park it will cost something to have one, and the question is, where is the money to come from.

Do the people want a park? If they do it is very easy to get one. A little cooperation and a little pulling together is all that is needed. We understand that the owner of the land on which the park has been operated during the past year will take about $2,000.00 for the land. Mr. Mayor told us that if $1,200 could be raised the park could be assured. Surely the gentlemen and ladies at the head of the movement will not admit that the small sum of $1,200 could not be raised in a community like Newberry for a park. If they do admit it, and it is true, then the people do not want a park. Some years ago we had over three thousand dollars subscribed for a park, but we needed more than that at that time, because we wanted to extend it on to Calhoun street and the matter was just dropped. Yes, $1,200, or even $2,000, can be raised for a park if the proper effort is put forth. The Herald and News and a certain contributor of ours has been writing about a park for Newberry for the past fifteen years or more, and we thought the thing had been fixed, though we didn't know just how it had been done, but now the question comes back, does Newberry want a park?

Sure she does, and the money can be raised. We know that Mayor Wright and Cashier Spearman will not admit they are unable to raise among their friends and the people of Newberry the pitiful sum of $2,000 for this purpose. If they do The Herald and News will just raise it, with the cooperation of The Idler.

The asylum won in the case about the appropriation for the continuance of the work at the asylum. We publish the opinion of the supreme court. It is a misfortune to have that much money spent on the improvements in Columbia when the whole institution should be removed to the country where the State has one of the finest properties for an institution of that kind of any State in the union. The attorney general's office gave permission for the suit to be brought and appointed one of the solicitors to bring the suit. A suit of this kind cannot be brought without the consent of the attorney general, as we understand it. The attorney general had some doubt as to the legality of the appropriation and the only way to settle it was to have the supreme court construe the act. The court somewhat reversed itself in a former similar case, but there can be no doubt that the legislature intended to make the appropriation and the decision is carrying out the intention of the legislature and it is all right.

THE MARCH DEBATE THE BIG EVENT OF THE SEASON

A big event every year in the life of Newberry college is the annual debate between the Excelsior and Phrenakosmian literary societies, otherwise known as "the March debate." It is often the case that the societies chose for the speakers in these debates their most promising prospects for the junior oratorical contests and the inter-collegiate oratorical contests as the manner in which a debater acquits himself enables his fellows to forecast to some extent the result of coming oratorical contests.

The opera house, on the occasion of these March debates, is usually crowded, but last Friday night it was almost a capacity house. On account of the splendid reputation of the speakers as orators and the further fact that the subject to be discussed was one of supreme national interest just at this time there were many out-of-town visitors. The debate was spirited and held the unabated interest of the audience from the start to the finish. The young men who delivered orations and the young lady essayist and the debaters deserve much credit for their efforts, reflecting as they did deep thought and painstaking preparation. As usual each society had chosen its representatives and the exercises were carried out in the following order:

James Kinard of the Excelsior society presided and presented as the first orator of the evening Mr. W. J. Proctor of the Phrenakosmian society, who spoke on the subject, "The South of Today." The subject for debate was, "Resolved, That Immigration to the United States Should be Further Restricted by a Literacy Test." The affirmative was opened by the Phrenakosmian, represented by Mr. C. D. Hipp. The negative was in the hands of the Excelsior society and Mr. S. D. Oxner followed. The second affirmative was Mr. C. E. Ridenhour and the second negative was Mr. K. R. Krepps. At the conclusion of the debate the judges retired to decide the winning side. Then followed the essayist for the Philomathian society, Miss Estelle Caldwell, whose subject was, "When Mercy Seasons Justice." The orator for the Excelsior society was A. Vigodsky, whose subject was "America First."

The decision was rendered in favor of the negative. The judges were H. L. Scaife, H. C. Tillman, John A. Horton, Rev. F. E. Dibble and Neal Workman.
